

Tricked!

Host: [ask a volunteer to stand with his/her heels against the wall. Set a coin on the floor in front of the person about two feet away. Have the person reach for the coin, keeping his or her heels against the wall. He or she may not hold onto anyone or anything while reaching for the coin. When he or she fails have other volunteers attempt it.

Next, hand a sheet of paper to a volunteer. Instruct him or her to fold the paper in half 10 times. When he or she fails, ask for other volunteers to attempt it. Give them various sizes of paper to try to fold.

Next, find a volunteer who is of the same gender and say: I'm the leader; you are the follower. I can find a place to sit in this room that you can't sit in. Sit down on the floor. Then get up, and invite the follower to sit on the floor too. Then sit on a chair in the room, get up and invite the follower to sit on the chair too. Before the follower has a chance to get up again, quickly sit in his/her own lap.
